

- 1) The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
- 2) Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home by not having the phone ringing all the time by tele-marketers
- 3) The effective Indiana's law has been wonderful,
"I used to receive 15 calls per day, now I don't get any"
- 4) Changing the Indiana Telephone Privacy law should be considered an act of terrorism.
